SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. On 13 March, the Yugoslav Government replied to an offer made by the Mexican firm Panuco y Naranjo stating that the petroleum requested as an import item during October 1948 was "not needed" at the present time, but that the firm's offer might be considered at the end of the year.
2. Simultaneously, the Yugoslav Government revealed that it was, however, interested in the following items:
 - a. 3,000 tons (or more) of gasoline for cars; 70 to 72 octane (or more)
 - b. 3,000 tons (or more) of aviation gas; 91 to 98 octane, or 100 to 130 octane.
 - c. Paraffine (no quantity indicated); melting point 52 and 54.
3. These products would be paid for in free dollars or whatever exchange might be requested.
